Garden Room

"Wicker" furniture was popular in Victorian conservatories, but once the much superior Lloyd Loom became available it replaced Wicker as the furniture of choice. That still holds true and the traditional Lloyd Loom style and finish goes perfectly in today's Garden Rooms and Conservatories.

The Babbington is our most popular range for the Garden Room. Also consider a Balmoral (page 28) to accompany it for variety. Look at the Buxton or Boston Lounge for luxury, the Burghley for classic comfort, and for dining look at the York or Stamford ranges on pages 11 & 17. For a stylish teatime consider the Belvoir range on page 20.

CLASSIC
DESIGN

Burghley

The original classic Lloyd Loom armchair, recreating the elegance of the past. The model is available in many guises. Both armchair and sofa come with either a drop-in cushion seat, as illustrated, or the armchair is available with a padded or flat weave seat. The flat weave seat is often ordered with a 1 inch cushion making it ideal for casual dining in restaurants or the home. There are several tables which complement the Burghley such as the Burghley, Canterbury, Belvoir or Babbington tables. The Babbington footstool is also a good match.

Babbington

For conservatories meant for relaxing. The whole range is great value and includes a comfortable armchair and two and three seater sofas. There is also an accompanying footstool - and a sofa table available with or without a shelf. Cushions can be made in any of our standard fabrics or your own choice of fabric.

Consider the Balmoral chair – page 28 as a partner for the Babbington.

Dining in the Garden Room

The Conservatory or Garden room is increasingly used for dining. Often it is an extension to the kitchen and the centre of the home, a place where Lloyd Loom dining chairs come into their own. Their clean modern lines are complemented by the woven fabric which gives a natural "outdoor" feel.

Consider the variety displayed in the next few pages, bearing in mind the colour palette of the garden. Once you have decided on your preferred model, go to page 35 where all of our weave colours are shown and look especially at the lighter and more natural shades.

Dining

Lloyd Loom weave is the up to the minute choice for dining chairs. The clean lines give a classic yet contemporary elegance, whilst the natural weave confers a relaxed mood.

Our dining chairs come in all shapes and sizes. The elegant Wells and Boston range are ideal for traditional dining; the Bourne and Derby have a contemporary tapered square leg design; the stylish Bistro and Bantam are ideal for a kitchen, café or restaurant. For the conservatory consider the original Lloyd Loom dining chair, the York and Stamford.

Stamford

One of the original Lloyd Loom of Spalding classics, available with or without a mini skirt and with a flat or padded weave seat - 1inch loose cushion available to compliment the flat weave seat option. There is a matching Stamford table in several standard sizes.

Café/Bar & Kitchen

Lloyd Loom chairs, stools and tables have always been popular in tearooms, bars and cafes and can be seen in famous establishments around Great Britain and Europe. It is the furniture of the moment for the modern kitchen and home extension.

View our suggestions on the next few pages and consider the Babbington (Page 6) for that relaxing corner.

HERITAGE

Newmarket

A unique heritage design, dating from the 1930s that still appeals and is appropriate in many settings. It is an extremely comfortable and very pretty chair which is surprisingly sturdy. It creates a cosy environment in the kitchen and has been successfully used in many cafés and bars looking for something special. We can adjust the height of the stool to suit a variety of situations if required.

Bedroom Bathroom

Until the middle of the last century nearly every house had its comfortable Lloyd Loom chair in the bedroom and, where size allows, the bathroom. This is becoming the norm again, both at home and within the hospitality trade. What could be more welcoming and nostalgic?

We designed the Barton range with practicality in mind. It is new and very affordably priced. If heritage is what you desire, look at the Trader range and our linen baskets. Any of our classic chairs (see the "Garden Room" section) are perfect for the bedroom or bathroom – but two that are especially popular for the more substantial bathroom are the Bolero and Balmoral.

Reception

The domestic hall or the reception area of a hotel or restaurant always benefits from a statement piece - and this is where some of our most interesting designs come into their own.

Whether you have room only for one striking Nemo, or space for an arrangement of Madrids, tailored to fit and covered in exciting fabric – we have something that will add grace, heritage and British flair to your design.

Shown on the next couple of pages are just a few suggestions for models, also try the "Garden Room" and "Bedroom" sections for more inspiration.

Although every effort is made to ensure consistency of product it should be noted that, particularly in respect of handmade furniture, slight variations in both colour and specification can occur. The colour of new furniture will inevitably vary compared to furniture which has been produced some time ago. Fabrics may also vary from batch to batch. We therefore recommend that wherever possible customers purchase all of their furniture requirements at the same time if the best possible colour match is critical.

Every care is taken to ensure that illustrations/photographs in our brochures and on our website are as accurate as possible, but these should always be used as a guide only particularly in relation to colour. Some images may have been digitally altered.
